About Us

The unity of believers in Christ is reflected in the rich diversity of the people of God. In Christ, by the power of the Holy Spirit, God unites all of us through baptism regardless of race, ethnicity, sexual preference, gender identity, disability, geography or theological conviction. Christ invited any and all to the table who wished to follow Him. At First United Presbyterian Church we believe in doing the same. A community is only as strong as its most marginalized member and at First United Presbyterian we seek to rectify the idea of community as a set people who see all people as beloved children of God.

A Note from Rev. Phil | February 2026

Dear Beloved of First United Presbyterian Church of Tarentum,

A mid-month, but almost Lent letter to you all. As I write, there is a bit of a thaw finally happening which is good news. We are still contending with water coming into the building, but hopefully that will end as well.

I write as a reminder, as an invitation, as a request, and as a thank you. Thank you's come first. Thanks for persevering and for being flexible. The weather has been "historic" in some ways and having to move solely online for worship and then these cold weeks and snow piles are a huge deterrent, and yet, you showed up. Whether online or in-person you have been present and I am grateful. I am also grateful for how you stepped up and brought coats, hats, underwear and more for the mission in downtown Pittsburgh. I am also grateful for the help with the community dinner and your continued gift of nonperishable food items for the pantry.

A reminder: while the collection for coats, etc for the mission in downtown Pittsburgh has ended, the nonperishable food items for the pantry continues. It is not unusual to place food in the Free Little Pantry and for it to be gone within a couple of hours.

Some invitations: This Sunday, February 15th is Transfiguration Sunday. We have the pleasure of hosting the Little Miami Choir from the Cincinnati area. This will be a treat. They are an excellent choir. After they worship with us they are off to tour the Cathedral of Learning and then share an afternoon concert at Heinz Chapel.

Tuesday, February 17 is our annual Shrove Tuesday Pancake Dinner from 5-7pm. Cub Scout Pack 186 is in charge and we provide the space. On the menu is Pancakes and Sausage. This is a donation only dinner with all donations going to assist the Cub Scouts for their summer camps. Don't miss this great opportunity for someone else to cook and support our local Cub Scout Pack.

Wednesday, February 18th is Ash Wednesday. For those unable to make our 7pm worship I will be offering Ashes "To Go" in our upper parking lot from 11am-noon and 5-6pm. I love doing this and get to meet some of our neighbors from the community. Our traditional worship with imposition of ashes and communion will be at 7pm.

Tuesday, February 24th is the next Free Fourth Tuesday Community Dinner from 5:30-6:30pm. On the menu is meatloaf, corn, mashed potatoes, beans, salad, applesauce and dessert. We can always use your help with either providing desserts or being present. In particular, we could use a couple of extra hands to help with clean up.

Different this year, we will be offering one midweek service in Lent. We will have a service of evening prayer on Tuesday, March 24th at 7pm. It will follow our Free Fourth Tuesday Community Dinner. Our hope is maybe some guests at the dinner will stay for worship.

May the peace of Christ be with you.

Rev. Phil

PS. Look for empty Easter Eggs, the time is upon us. Please fill the eggs with wrapped candy. Last year we distributed over 2,000 eggs at our Kids Easter Party. The Kids Easter Party will be Saturday, March 28 from 11-12:30pm.

O Splendor of God's Glory Bright

In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious, Thy great name we praise.

2 Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light,
Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might;
Thy justice, like mountains, high soaring above
Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love.

3 To all, life Thou givest, to both great and small;
In all life Thou livest, the true life of all;
We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree,
Then wither and perish; but naught changeth Thee.

4 Thou reignest in glory, Thou rulest in light,
Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight;
All praise we would render; O help us to see
'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee!

Swiftly Pass the Clouds of Glory

Swiftly pass the clouds of glory, Heaven's voice, the dazzling light;
Moses and Elijah vanish; Christ alone commands the height!
Peter, James, and John fall silent, Turning from the summit's rise
Downward toward the shadowed valley Where their Lord has fixed His eyes.
Glimpsed and gone the revelation, They shall gain and keep its truth,
Not by building on the mountain Any shrine or sacred booth,
But by following the Savior Through the valley to the cross
And by testing faith's resilience Through betrayal, pain, and loss.
Lord, transfigure our perception With the purest light that shines,
And recast our life's intentions To the shape of Your designs,
Till we seek no other glory Than what lies past Calv'ry's hill
And our living and our dying And our rising by Your will.

Jesus on the Mountain Peak

1 Jesus on the mountain peak
Stands alone in glory blazing; Let us, if we dare to speak,
Join the saints and angels praising. Alleluia!

2 Trembling at His feet we saw
Moses and Elijah speaking.
All the prophets and the law
Shout through them their joyful greeting:
Alleluia!

3 Swift the cloud of glory came,
God proclaiming, in its thunder,
Jesus as the Son by name!
Nations, cry aloud in wonder.
Alleluia!

4 This is God's beloved Son!
Law and prophets sing before Him,
First and last and only One.
All creation shall adore Him!
Alleluia!
